

GE Current Integrity Guide for Suppliers, Contractors, Consultants, and Consortium Partners

A Message from Current

Current Lighting Solutions, LLC (“Current”) is committed to unyielding integrity and high standards of business conduct in everything we do, especially in our dealings with Current’s suppliers, contractors, consortium partners and consultants (collectively “Suppliers”).

Current bases its Supplier relationships on lawful, efficient and fair practices, and Suppliers must adhere to applicable legal and regulatory requirements in their business relationships as set out in this Current Integrity Guide for Suppliers, Contractors and Consultants (the “Guide”) in connection with their activities for Current.

Suppliers are responsible to ensure that they and their employees, workers, representatives, suppliers and subcontractors comply with the standards of conduct set out in this Guide and in other contractual obligations to Current.

Please contact the Current manager you work with or any Current Compliance Resource if you have any questions about this Guide or the standards of business conduct that all Current Suppliers must meet.

Responsibilities of Current Suppliers

You, as a Supplier to Current, agree:

Fair Employment Practices: To (i) observe applicable laws and regulations governing wages and hours, recruitment and employment contracts; (ii) allow workers to choose freely whether to organize or join associations of their own choosing for the purpose of collective bargaining as provided by local law or regulation; (iii) prohibit discrimination, harassment and retaliation; (iv) upon end of employment, reimburse return transportation costs for workers recruited from outside the country; (v) not charge workers recruitment fees or utilize firms charging workers such fees; (vi) not utilize fraudulent or misleading recruitment practices; (vii) not hold or destroy a worker’s identity or immigration documents; and (viii) provide workers with terms and conditions of employment in a language the worker understands.

Environment, Health & Safety: (i) To comply with applicable environmental, health and safety (EHS) laws and regulations and Current’s contractor EHS requirements; (ii) to provide workers a safe and healthy workplace; and (iii) not to adversely affect the local community. If housing is provided or arranged, it must meet host country safety standards.

Human Rights: (i) To respect human rights of your employees and others in your business operations and your activities for Current; (ii) not to employ workers younger than sixteen (16) years of age or below the applicable minimum age, whichever is higher; (iii) not to use forced, prison or indentured labor, or workers subject to any form of physical, sexual or psychological compulsion, exploitation or coercion, or to engage in or abet trafficking in persons; (iv) to adopt policies and establish systems to procure tantalum, tin, tungsten, and gold from sources that have been verified as conflict free; and (v) to provide supporting data on your supply chain for tantalum, tin, tungsten, and gold to Current when requested, on a platform to be designated by Current.

Working with Governments, Improper Payments, Dealings with Current Employees and Representatives: (i)

To maintain and enforce a policy requiring adherence to lawful business practices, including a prohibition against bribery of government officials, (ii) not to offer or provide, directly or indirectly, anything of value, including cash, bribes, gifts, entertainment or kickbacks, including offers of employment, or participation in a contest, game or promotion, to any Current employee, representative or Current customer or to any government official in connection with any Current procurement, transaction or business dealing, and (iii) to provide supporting data to Current when requested.

Competition Law: Not to share or exchange any price, cost or other competitive information or engage in any collusive conduct with any third party with respect to any proposed, pending or existing Current procurement.

Intellectual Property: To respect the intellectual and other property rights of Current and of third parties, including all patents, trademarks and copyrights.

Security and Privacy: (i) To respect privacy rights and secure the data of Current employees, customers, and suppliers (collectively, "Current Data"); (ii) to implement and maintain physical, organizational and technical measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of Current Data in order to prevent accidental, unauthorized or unlawful destruction, alteration, modification or loss of Current Data, misuse of Current Data, or unlawful processing of Current Data; and (iii) protect Supplier operations and facilities against exploitation by criminal or terrorist individuals and organizations.

Trade Controls & Customs Matters: Not to transfer Current technical information to any third party without the express, written permission of Current, and to comply with all applicable trade control laws and regulations in the import, export, re-export or transfer of goods, services, software, technology or technical data including any restrictions on access or use by unauthorized persons or entities.

Controllorship and Tax Law: To ensure that all invoices and any customs or similar documentation submitted to Current or governmental authorities or audited by third parties in connection with transactions involving Current accurately describe the goods and services provided or delivered and the price thereof, to ensure that all documents, communications and accounting are accurate and honest and not to take or participate in any actions that may be viewed as tax evasion or the facilitation of tax evasion.

How to Raise a Question or Concern

Subject to local laws and any legal restrictions applicable to such reporting, each Current Supplier is expected to inform Current promptly of any concern related to this Guide affecting Current, whether or not the concern involves the Supplier, as soon as the Supplier has knowledge of such an occurrence. Current Suppliers also must take such steps as Current may reasonably request to assist Current in the investigation of any such occurrence involving Current and the Supplier. If Supplier’s work is related to a U.S. government contract, Supplier must notify Current of any alleged non-conformance with this Supplier Integrity Guide.

I. Define your question/concern: Who or what is the concern? When did it arise? What are the relevant facts?

II. Prompt reporting is crucial — A question or concern may be raised by a Current Supplier as follows:

- By discussing with a cognizant Current Manager; OR
- By calling the Current Integrity Helpline: 1-833-328-7669; OR
- By emailing Current.ombudsperson@gecurrent.com OR
- By contacting the Current Compliance Leader at bobby.simpson@gecurrent.com.

Current Policy forbids retaliation against any person reporting such a concern.

I, Supplier, have reviewed, understand, and agree to the terms and requirements above.
